ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

We extend our deepest gratitude to the incredible community that makes everything we do possible. To the families, friends, and supporters who show up, cheer us on, and contribute their time, energy, and resources thank you for believing in the transformative power of theater.

To our performers, crew members, and volunteers, your dedication, creativity, and tireless work behind the scenes bring our vision to life. You are the heart and soul of every production, and we are endlessly grateful for your contributions.

To the local organizations, businesses, and sponsors who have partnered with us, your generosity and belief in the arts allow us to grow and thrive. Your support ensures that we can continue to share meaningful stories and create lasting memories for our audiences.

A special thank you to the educators, mentors, and leaders who foster creativity and inclusivity in our shared spaces. Your guidance and encouragement inspire us to push boundaries and aim higher with every production.

We would like to extend our heartfelt gratitude to Jay Raftery and his family for their unwavering dedication and generosity, which have been invaluable to our success.

Adept Events, thank you for providing the use of microphones during SIX the Musical, elevating the quality of our performances.

We are deeply grateful to Saundra Cortez for her exceptional photography, capturing the spirit and memories of our productions.

A special thank you to Nipomo High School Drama for their collaboration and ongoing support of our work, as well as the Arroyo Grande High School Drama Department for their partnership and shared commitment to the arts. We are also incredibly appreciative of Mesa Middle School Drama and Judkins Middle School Drama for their encouragement and contributions to fostering creativity within the performing arts community.

Your generosity and involvement make what we do possible, and we are endlessly grateful to each of you for your role in our journey. Thank you!

Finally, to our audiences—thank you for your unwavering support, for filling our seats, and for embracing the magic of live performance. You are the reason we do what we do, and we are honored to share these experiences with you.

Together, we create something truly special. Thank you for being part of our story.
